DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, the location of the "fastener tracks" is not clearly defined.

In claim 1, the location of the "weakening portions" is unclear. It is uncertain if the weakening portions are on the shroud that covers the "fastener tracks" or on the front and rear panels of the package to which the fastener tracks are attached.

In claim 1, the limitation that states the "shroud covering said slider" contradicts with the limitation that the shroud defines "at least one opening for said slider".

Clarification is required.

In claim 12, "trunning" should be changed to --running--.

In claim 16, the location of the "peelable seal" has not been defined.

Claims not specifically mentioned are rejected since they depend from claims rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-20 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-17, 19-26, 28 and 29 of copending Application No. 09/837,694 in view of Buchanan '607. Application No. 09/837,694 discloses the claimed invention except for the shroud having an opening communicating with the weakening portion and the opening having an acute angle portion. Buchanan '607 discloses that it is known in the art to provide an opening in the shroud of an analogous package that communicates with the weakening portion. Buchanan '607 further discloses that it is known to provide the opening as a triangular shape (triangles inherently have at least two acute angle portions). It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art to provide the shroud of Application

No. 09/837,694 with the triangular opening of Buchanan '607 in order to facilitate removing the shroud from the package.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or

(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

6. Claims 1, 2, 11-13 and 16-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Buchman '607.

As a note, Buchanan '607 discloses that the opening 33, 37 in the shroud may have a triangular shape. See column 4, lines 13-19. Since triangles inherently have at least two acute angle portions, Buchanan '607 meets the limitation of the shroud with an opening having an acute angle portion communicating with the weakening portion.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Buchman '607.

Buchman '607 discloses the claimed invention except for the shroud being separately formed and joined to the front and rear panels. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to separately form the shroud of Buchman '607, since it has been held that constructing a formerly integral structure in various elements involves only routine skill in the art. Nerwin v. Erlichman, 168 USPQ 177, 179.
